

Thank you.

Legacy of Care recognizes those who have included IVCG in their estate plan.

If you have already done so, you are a member of Legacy of Care. If not, including IVCG in your estate plan now or in the future qualifies you for membership.

While recognition often inspires generosity in others, you have the option to remain anonymous.

SAMPLE BEQUEST LANGUAGE

To designate IVCG as a beneficiary of your estate, please share the following suggested bequest language with your attorney to assist in drafting your will or codicil.

UNRESTRICTED GIFT:

I give to Interfaith Volunteer Care Givers of Greater New Haven [___ % of my estate or the sum of $ ____] for its general purposes.

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION:

Consider naming IVCG as the beneficiary of your existing account in a donor-advised fund, a retirement plan, IRA, or a life insurance policy.

Interfaith Volunteer Care Givers of Greater New Haven is a non-profit organization qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Our federal tax identification number is 48-1306407.

A Legacy Gift to IVCG

through your will or estate ensures that your commitment to making a difference in the lives of seniors in our community will continue beyond your lifetime, while helping to sustain IVCG's mission of service.

If an IVCG volunteer has been like family to you or your loved ones, please consider including our organization in your estate plan.

A bequest will bring you joy and it will help strengthen and extend our service to our valued elders, now and for years to come.
